DOMAINE BRUNO CLAIR

Gevrey-Chambertin 1er cru Clos Saint-Jacques

Gevrey-Chambertin 1er cru Clos Saint-Jacques 1,0001 ha -
2.47 acres

According to several old analysts, the Clos Saint-Jacques was classified "tête de cuvée" corresponding to our Grand cru of today. It is considered to be the most prestigious of the 1er cru of Gevrey-Chambertin.

The Clos Saint-Jacques is worked by five wine growers. Each owns a plot which extends upwards on the slope and this brings a great balance to the wines. The vines of our plot are particularly remarkable, thanks to the "massale" (visual selection of the most robust vineplants) made by my father more than 30 years ago. Half of the plot was planted in 1957, the other part in 1972. The vines are of an astonishing qualitative regularity there. Le Clos Saint-Jacques always produces a fine, complex wine to keep.

N.B.

This vineyard belongs to Bruno's mother, Genevieve Bartet. Until the year 1998, the wine was sold under the label Domain G. Bartet and Bruno had ensured the cultivation and the vinification of it since 1986. Since the 1999 vintage, we have marketed it under the Domaine Bruno Clair label.
