

Latricères-Chambertin Grand Cru

In the middle ages the name of the plot was "Petite Merveille" so great was the quality of the wines produced there. Even if we don't know when the Clos was really created, it already existed in 1508.

Total size of the appellation : 7 ha 30 a
Size of the Faiveley Domaine : 1 ha 20 a 67 ca [US: 2,98 Acres]

Years the vines were planted : 1958, 1984, 1989
Average vine age in 2005 : 33 years old

Serve at : 16° to 18°C

Serve with : Small roasted quails, pigeons accompanied by green peas, meat on the bone, roast beef.