Comment

The most intellectual Pinot Noir within the Fromm Range with a distinct Old World dimension. While most modern wines come to you, this wine you will need to meet half way. It has great density and compact dark fruit concentration. The tannins are very fine and the structure solid. Yet there is a textural quality and subtle freshness which gives this wine immediate appeal without revealing its full potential. Bottled without fining, filtering or other clarifying additives.

Short description

Dense, dark-fruit Pinot, notes of cassis and spice, all wrapped around ripe and balanced tannins. Great aging potential. (July 2007)
