Comment	This is a new addition to the La Strada Range, a Fromm expression of Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc. It combines the finest aspects of the region's unique flavour profile with our own reputation of producing wines of subtlety and finesse. Equally important, they are made to complement food. The wine shows a discreet herbal touch with a positive hint of minerality, allowing the genuine character of ripe Sauvignon Blanc to dominate. Firm and racy yet with a lovely textural elegance, the wine finishes dry and flavourful. Serve lightly chilled but not too cold.
